Once the leaves have fallen off the trees and flowers have disappeared from our gardens, we are left with the shadows where magic happens, which is exactly the inspiration for our MV Mag #21! In "Shadows," our sultry MV Stars let their sensuality and inner lights shine out onto the world.

Our Cover Girl this month is none other than Housewifeswag: named 2018's MV BBW of the year and 2017's Boobs of the Year. This Sass Queen wears many crowns as a mother, content creator and outspoken advocate for tearing down the stigma surrounding the adult industry. We're hopeful she creates her "week in the life" vlog one day!

Direct from the MV Loft, Alix Lovell serves us vintage Hollywood glamour with a dash of Material Girl. But don't let the delicate gauze and dreamy gaze fool you: Alix has a thick skin when it comes to business. Clearly, her drive and passion have outweighed any hardships life has thrown at her.

Harlow Money is the monochrome mermaid of our dreams! Although she may look straight out of a silent movie, she's no damsel in distress. Generous subs who heed her siren call might end up as furniture in her castle on Domme Island! Sounds pretty blissy doesn't it?

Enter ComfieCozie, who talks about her plan to reach her fullest potential in the coming year as she luxuriates on a fluffy hotel bed. While she discusses her most adventurous sexcapades, she also gives sage advice to up-and-coming MV Stars. We're all ears for this beauty.

1. Can you take us down the path of what the journey to your current success has been like since the start of your career?

It's been a whirlwind for sure. I started without much knowledge or research and just dove right in. I don't recommend that, by the way. Camming to me has always been about getting to spend some more personal time with my supporters. I love spending time with them in real time and hearing about them and their day. I started doing videos because people asked me to and I actually had no idea if I even wanted to continue making videos, but I think that's where I am able to really push myself creatively. I never started this thinking that I'd achieve any sort of success and I attribute a lot of my success to the people who support me. Without them, I wouldn't be where I am.

2. What is something that you wish more people knew about you?

This is a tough question because I am super honest and transparent and it's almost to a fault. I'll tell you things that maybe you wish you didn't know but it allows me to be who I am without apologies which I think is really important.

3. Name five things that you consider motivation to keep pushing forward.

My family, my supporters, my determination, my drive to improve, and my desire to help others and make a difference in people's lives.

Amor Próprio
Do small things with

4. You produce and film extremely creative content. Where do you draw inspiration for your work?

Thank you so much! That's really kind. I draw inspiration from everything, advertisements, music videos, movies, TV shows, feelings, nostalgia, literally anything. I have a running list of ideas that I am always adding things to and it's basically a collection of anything that I could use in a video.

5. What is an average day like in the life of housewifeswag?

There is no such thing as an average day around here! It varies depending on all I have to accomplish for the day, but my mom duties come first and I'm constantly working. I get up in the morning and start the day with my good morning tweet to my favorite people in the universe and then I have my mommy duties, I answer emails and messages, create graphics, etc. I've been saying for the longest time I should create a "week in the life" vlog so you can see just how hectic my life can be, but I love it. I feel so lucky to be my own boss.

6. If you could change one thing about the adult industry, what would you like to see?

The stigma surrounding the industry and the people within it. I'd like to believe that sex work is becoming more well-known or mainstream and thus, more accepted, but with the passing of bills such as SESTA and FOSTA, we obviously still have a long way to go. People still have difficulty differentiating between sex work and sex trafficking and a lot of that is because we seriously lack sexual education. I also think education about sex work and the adult industry needs to be done by actual sex workers, so the information is accurate and not romanticized.

> “I feel so lucky to be my own boss.

7. What are some of your hobbies and interests outside of work?

Video production, cooking, interior decorating, organizing, shopping for props, and anything that will help increase the quality of my content.

8. Can you tell us a few unexpected fun facts about yourself?

Growing up I wanted to be a nurse, elementary school teacher or a mortician. I’ve lived in Japan. I was on a Co-Ed Rugby team in high school. I used to sing the National Anthem before baseball games and sang in a lot of talent shows.

Show this housewife some love!

1. We were so excited to have you at the MV Loft in Canada for the first time. What comes to your mind when you think of Canadians?

When I think of Canadians I think of really friendly and nice people and I also think of Degrassi! LOL!

2. How did you discover that the adult industry was the right place for you?

I knew porn was for me because I already believed in sexual liberation and equality for both men and women. I believe in embracing your sexuality and if you can use that as a form of art then it's a gift that should be utilized. I also feel it's a great way to experience life and meet other like-minded people.

3. What were some of the most important lessons regarding the adult industry that you've learned so far?

One of the most important lessons I have learned is to always remember to stay confident and educated because people will always take advantage of you no matter who you are in any business but especially in entertainment. I also learned that the key to success is never quitting or giving up, no matter how hard things get. Patience and drive keep a good performer building a happy and healthy brand.

4. What are your sexual kinks and are there any other fetishes that you'd like to explore?

Mild bondage is a favorite fetish for me, but I like the mental stimulation of being man handled and the loss of control.

5. Could you tell us about your most memorable fan encounter you've had?

I would say my most memorable fan encounter was not in person but online with a guy going by the username "pickle dick." He is most memorable because he posts the strangest little rhymes about pickles LOL!

6. What are your sexual preferences when it comes to choosing a sex partner?

For sex purely, it depends on female or male. With men I like a smile and confidence in the eyes that just pierces you and makes you melt. The confidence is sexy because it means they can and will toss you around in the sack. As for females I typically prefer the opposite, a woman who is either fully submissive to me or a domme that's the loving gentle type. I have a thing for blonde men, but I love Latina ladies especially when they have like blue or green eyes!

7. What were the most difficult challenges that you had to overcome in your professional life?

I have overcome so much already in the last two years. Let's just say it's been the opposite of a chick who has it all handed to them on a silver platter. That first year really made me realize I have the thick skin it takes to be in business. More importantly my drive and my passion for this outweighs any hardships thrown at me. Part of what I love and actually find more rewarding is the fact that it's all been like pulling teeth to get to where I am. At the end of the day, I am genuinely feeling proud of all the hurdles I have had to overcome in order to succeed in this industry.

8. What cool things do you have in store for the future?

So, I just started my own LLC (New Verticals Consulting) as a social media director and I am managing multiple companies' and individuals' social media–industry accounts as well as personal channels like ManyVids among others. I also just started shooting again after taking the year off to build this business. I'm going to be finally able to update my channels again and hopefully hit a few firsts for top companies like my first anal and first Tgirl scene. As well as shoot for more Milf like content being that I turn 28 in February. I'll be at all the major business and performer shows now as well. So, hoping for a big 2019! As for my TS and anal scene, I don't have much info yet but make sure to check my social media often for info on all things happening with me!

1. When did it occur to you that you wanted to be a Domme?

Surprisingly, I FELL into Female Domination in 2012. After I moved to Vegas from California, I began getting calls from various fetish companies inquiring about my willingness to do some different fetish videos. After agreeing to do my first ball busting shoot, I was hooked.

2. What do you love most about the work you do?

I adore that my every day is different. My work allows me to work as much as I'd like as well as take as much time off as I'd like. I never have to pretend or play a role to make a living. I am who I am, and as sadistic and kinky as that is, they always want more. This industry understands my kinky mind and I can't get enough of it.

3. What is your favorite way to de-stress?

I genuinely workout multiple times a day and meditate to center myself. I am multi-faceted in that I LIVE in the extremes. There is NEVER a happy medium with me. I enjoy ball busting on Thursday afternoon, then go home and meditate on Thursday night. My life is all about balance. Without it I would go to the dark side and never return. We can't have that, now can we? =]

4. What was the most adventurous & exciting sexual experience you've ever had?

I honestly shouldn't go into detail as I love living in my city and they really do frown on public sex. Especially in the bars… hah! Just know if I wanted to do porn, privacy wouldn't be an issue for me. Maybe I'll do a tell all video and sell it exclusively on ManyVids, it would actually have to be multiple videos though. #WhatHappensInVegas

5. If you could have three wishes, what would they be?

1) I want a pet dinosaur. Well, it's a toss-up between a T-rex or my own caveman… I really just want to beat him on his head and drag him into the cave.

2) My own island with an authentic castle filled with slaves. Even the furniture would be my boys begging to serve me in anyway possible. The only way to get to my amazing Domme Island is via my personal pirate ship (she is in the bay waiting for the island to be built).

3) I want us women to come into the power we have been kept from for so long.

6. Describe your ideal sub.

Oh that's easy! He is RICH, MUTE & his cock leaks for the ignore fetish.

7. What type of fantasy custom vid order would be a dream for you to receive?

Mmm. A generous sub who wants only to watch his Goddess as she sits by the ocean somewhere tropical. Obviously, the trip was slave funded as well, as this sub would know the value of ensuring all bases are covered when ordering a custom. My best boys that order customs from me ALWAYS ensure to include a large tribute with their custom orders so that any beauty touch-ups that need to happen are on their tab, Goddess is ready & perfect in every way.

8. What can one of your subs do to earn your respect, and show their support?

A good boy who wants my attention must try harder than those who already have it. Binging on my clips is the best way to please me. The bigger the binge, the more respect one can earn. Consistent binging & tributes to support me is the best way to influence my attention towards them. The proof of support from an individual is shown in the number of clips they purchase.

1. What are some of the perks being a camgirl living in Sin City?

I would have to say some perks would be that a lot of other cam models live here and the cam events that happen here! It's always nice to meet new people in the industry and living in Vegas with lots of others here, it's nice to reach out to the other models and get lunch, go shopping and connect work wise if you wanted! It's also nice that AVNs are here and I can pop in at any time or even go back to my home since I'm a little introverted sometimes! So, it makes going to an event like that a little easier since It's here where I live rather than somewhere far and unfamiliar.

2. What are your personal goals for the 2019 year?

I've been in this industry since 2015, and I feel I really haven't done as much that I'm capable of! I'd really love to achieve my full potential in 2019 and really step out of my comfort zone. Film more content, do more photoshoots and really find myself.

3. Can you name the biggest accomplishment in your career thus far?

My biggest accomplishment for me would have to be, being nominated two years in a row for Best Camgirl of the Year for the XBiz awards and doing this shoot with ManyVids. When I first started this job, I always thought I'd make some money and pay some debt off and bills, but I had no idea that I would stay with it for so long and certainly didn't think I'd stand out in any way!

4. When you look back at your beginnings, who did you consider a role model?

When I first started camming, I obviously would watch other models (like most of us do) to get an idea how to run things, and how it all works! I came across a model's room by the name of PumpkinSpice and was so impressed by how involved she was and how hard she worked! She really inspired me to go hard and work my butt off. After I had worked a year or so in the industry, I found out she lived near me and I reached out and we went out together! To this day we are great friends and it makes me happy to see her succeeding and still grinding. She is certainly a role model to me and I'm sure for many other girls in this industry!

5. How has being in the industry impacted your life?

Being in the industry has tremendously impacted my life in such a good way, but there's always some bad to the good. Starting off and realizing how much I can make doing this I was in shock. I've worked hard my whole life and never came close to being able to do things for myself like I can now which I'm so grateful for. The hardest part of joining this industry was relationships with my family (I'm sure I'm not alone there), but I'm so happy to say that today there is no issues and everyone in my life is happy and proud of me.

6. What is the most scandalous thing you've ever done?

The most scandalous thing that I've done that probably takes the cake for this question is having sex in the Las Vegas Airport. And no not like in the bathroom or something, like right at the gate. It was early and there was no one around and I put my suitcase on the chair in front of me and he was behind me. Oops ;)

7. Can you give us a few words of wisdom that you wish someone shared with you before starting your journey as a camgirl?

I would probably have to say that as great as this job may sound (and the industry as a whole), be careful. Be careful trusting people you decide to work with and be careful with members too. I have seen many bad things happen to some people (even close friends) that is just heartbreaking. Don't let anyone make you do anything you don't want to do and don't let anyone use you. Also, be safe with your personal information because you never know who someone really is behind a username.

8. What is your biggest fantasy?

I feel like all the "sexual" type fantasies I've had, I've already done. I really don't have a lot of fantasies in that aspect, but my biggest fantasy right now would have to be just being someone else's fantasy. I love creating content for people that they've always wanted or didn't know they wanted.

Cuddle up next to this beauty!
